B DAERA Privacy Notice

The Department takes data protection, freedom of information and environmental information issues seriously. It takes care to ensure that any personal information received from you is dealt with in a way which complies with the requirements of the General Data Protection Regulations (2016). This means that any personal information you supply will be processed principally for the purpose for which it has been provided. However, the Department is under a duty to protect the public funds it administers, and to this end may use the information you have provided for this purpose. It may also share this information with other bodies responsible for the audit or administration of public funds, in order to prevent and detect crime.

In addition, the Department may also use it for other legitimate purposes in line with the General Data Protection Regulations, Freedom of Information Act 2000 and Environmental Information Regulations 2004.

These include: Administration of the Common Agricultural Policy and other aid schemes; Administration of the Common Fisheries Policy; The production and safety of food; Management of land and other environmental controls; Animal health and welfare; Statutory schemes and obligations in the areas of plant health and crop certification; Occupational health and welfare; Regulatory and natural resources policy; Environmental policy; Legislation relating to the Northern Ireland Environmental Agency; Use (e.g. by The Comptroller and Auditor General and HM Revenue and Customs) for the prevention and detection of fraud or maladministration; Compilation of statistics; Disclosure to other organisations when required by law to do so; Disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 or the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 where such disclosure is in the public interest; Administration of UK wide schemes on behalf of the Department for the Environment, Food and Rural Affairs in Great Britain; Business development and knowledge advisory service for farmers, growers and food processors and for corresponding with you in connection with the above activities.
